Harold Fields

To you Mrs. Kirk we dedicate the 1960 KANZA. Your tireless work has instilled in us the proper usage of the English language. We can look at the many trophies earned by your students in contests to be reminded of your unceasing work. The plays presented under your patient direction have created enjoyment for all of the people in Bucklin and surrounding towns. Through these years you have been our English and Speech teacher. Now we salute you and wish you the best of luck in everything you do.

SENIORS

Senior Will

Leroy Birney - wills his brains to his brother since he's going to be a preacher and won't need them anyway.
Helen Melton - wills her ability to convince a boy that a gas can is a rabbit to Jane who could use it.
Bill Sterbens - wills his ghostly ability to go through closed doors to the "spirit" of Bucklin High School.
Richard Ross - wills his motorcycle to Philip Rudd in hopes he will be a better cyclist than his big brother.
David Skeen - wills his hot gum, false hands, exploding cigars and other gimmicks to David Bachelor, even though he doesn't need such devices to drive people crazy.
Della Skeen - wills her will power to anyone who wants to start a diet.
Carolyn Ray - wills her ability to lambaste a volleyball 10 miles to our space program which seems to have a little trouble getting their rockets off the ground.
Barbara Schellhamer - wills her motto "Have boy friend, will trade" to any dissatisfied couple.
Joann Staats - wills her ability to chew gum like a cow to any cow that doesn't know how.
Jenny Imel - wills her ability to grow long hair to Cloma who has never succeeded.
Larry Rudd - wills his ability to sleep through English to Mrs. Kirk. She could use it to make English much more interesting.
Joyce Weikal - wills her fast driving technique to anyone who enjoys flying low.
Tom Stegman - wills his tacit disposition to Cheryl Clevenger who should find it useful.
Galen Powers - wills his ability to effectively crown a basketball queen to Eddie Popp who might need the knowledge someday.
Arthur Hurley - wills his enthusiasm for hot rods to Connie who always has car trouble on a country road.

Senior Prophecy

Bill Sterbens: As the owner of this network, I am proud to present the witty and well-known TV announcer-- David Skeen! And here he comes now, our master of ceremonies. Let's give him a hand!

Dave: Hello folks! This is the 1985 FAMOUS PEOPLES OF THE UNIVERSE SHOW. When we compiled the list of famous people we found that they were all from the Senior class of 1960 of Bucklin High School. We will open our program with a message from the president of the United States--Tom Stegman.

Tom: (clears throat and reads the B.H.S. Address.)

One score and five years ago Bucklin High School sent forth upon this continent a new class, dedicated to the proposition that Seniors of '60 were created superior.

Now we are engaged in a great television program testing whether that class so dedicated can long excel. We dedicate this program to that class. It is altogether fitting and proper that we do this.

But in a larger sense, we cannot dedicate--we cannot consecrate--we cannot hallow this class. The brave members, who struggled in BHS have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will always note and long remember what we say here and it can never forget what they did.

They are dedicated to the unfinished work which they have, thus far, so nobly advanced.

These accomplishments of the Seniors, by the Seniors, for the World shall not perish from the earth.

Dave: Thank you President Stegman for those fitting remarks. Now we have the famous Gen. G. L. Powers who has been leading our forces against the savage cave dwellers of Mars.

Galen: We need to double our military budget. Now I have outlined a crash program that. . . . (he is ushered to a chair.)

Dave: And now the man who became a multi-trillionaire in the used spacemobile business--Larry Rudd!

Larry: Hey, let me tell the folks about this new foreign job I got in from Saturn. It's a real cool . . . (he's ushered to his seat.)

David: Sorry, no plugs. Against the rules. Now I'd like to introduce Mr. Rudd's secretary who has served both as an inspiration and a stenographer in his business ventures, Miss Genevieve Imel. (She enters daintily and sits on his knee.)

Dave: If Mrs. Connie Rudd is in the audience she has permission to scream. And now Mademoiselle Jo Staats, the French hairdresser so influential that she has made the Yul Bynner haircut popular among women.

Next is the Rev. Leroy Birney who has performed a great service converting the little green men of Venus.

Now the famous interior decorator--renowned for her magnificent job on the Pentagon. Della Skeen!

Della: Hmmm. Don't you think the podium would look better over there; and the chairs really should be in straight rows. . . .

Dave: (Placating her) Well. . . Not just now. . . (hastily) And now we have the famous coach, Richard Ross. Undeclared for 10 years. (except by his wife.)

Now the lady who, because of her sweet disposition and "tender lovin' care" was chosen Mother of the Year! Carolyn Fenton Ray! (She modestly throws a kiss to the audience as she enters.)

Next, the dean of Harvard. The devotion and loyalty the students show this dean is remarkable. Dean Barbara Schellhamer!

And now the actor of the year who won an oscar for his master disguise and acting in "I Was Frankenstein's Bride." Arthur Hurley.

Next we have Helen Melton Todd, famous for her outstanding work as Director of Public Relations in the grass skirt industry of Hawaii.

Helen: (very cordial) Well, I'm very glad to see you Davie. (to the audience) Now our grass skirts are really the most--in a small sort of way of course. . . (she's ushered to her seat.)

Dave: Attention Ladies and Gentlemen! We have just received a late bulletin. Mrs. Joyce Swartwout Weikal has just arrived from winning the Indianapolis Speedway Race. The first woman to do so and now, Joyce Weikal.

At this time it gives me great pleasure to introduce the former sponsor of the Class of '60, Mrs. Kirk, who is also the winner of the Nobel Prize for literature.

Well, folks, this brings about the end of our 1985 FAMOUS PEOPLES OF THE UNIVERSE SHOW. You have been a most delightful audience and we hope you all enjoyed yourselves. (a loud rip is heard as he bows)
